NUMBER 13.

E. K. FARRAND CHOSEN HONOR BOARD'S HEAD

First Meeting of Commission Held Primarily To Organize

KEELE AND STARK MADE SECRETARIES

States That Success of System Depends on Student Body's Co-operation

E. K. Farrand was elected chairman of the men's honor commission for this year at the first meeting of the commission yesterday morning in the Law Building. Howard Keele '23 was chosen recording secretary and Max Stark '23 corresponding secretary. No cases were considered. The meeting was primarily for organization. Two cases will be brought up for decision next Wednesday. Other members of the commission are: H. N. Yates '22, M. M. Olander '22, F. U. Naughton '22, and Marshall Edwards '23.

Applies Daily
Students, especially freshmen, are urged to remember that the Honor System applies to daily work and to quizzes as well as to the final examinations. Collaboration in "scholastic work must be done only with the knowledge and approval of the instructor in charge of the work.

Violations of the Honor System have been treated with no leniency in the past, the commission wishes to bring to the attention of the students. Persons found guilty under the Honor System are subject to denial of credit, dismissal, or expulsion from the University, according to the degree of guilt, subject to the approval of the council of administration.

Report Violations
Violations of the Honor System should be reported to any member of the commission.

"The success of the Honor System is in the hands of the student body," declared Chairman Farrand yesterday. "Every student should consider it his personal duty to report all suspicious evidence of cheating, or cribbing in work for University credit. Only by wholehearted co-operation can the morals of honor be maintained."

LEAGUE DISCUSSES DISARMAMENT PLAN

Express Hope That Reduction Of Armaments May Be Arranged at Washington

(By Associated Press)
GENEVA, Oct. 1.—Disappointment at the absence of results obtained by the League of Nations since the last assembly and hope in the forthcoming Washington conference were the two principal sentiments expressed in today's debate by the assembly on disarmament.

The assembly, however, was aroused to considerable enthusiasm particularly by the eloquent defense of M. Noblemaire of France against accusations of militarism brought against his country.

Want Arms Traffic Control
Lord Robert Cecil, who presented the committee's report on disarmament, said he hoped the Washington conference would do something for the control of private manufacture and traffic in arms.

Captain Melbourne Bruce of Australia said it was a matter of as much interest to Europe as to Australia if his country were obliged to go on arming following the example of the Asiatic countries in order to protect its 12,000 miles of seacoast.

"HELLO GIRLS" CAMPAIGN COMMENCES TOMORROW

"Hello girls" is the greeting which Y. W. C. A. wishes to make universal by the "Hello week" campaign, October 3 to 8.

Tags will be distributed on all corners of the campus from 3 o'clock until 4 o'clock by members of the general committee and their helpers. All girls are asked to wear them and help spread the word along.

Louise Denny '23, chairman of the general committee, believes that if each woman student takes upon herself the responsibility of making "Hello week" a success, the week will have fulfilled its purpose. The spirit of the plan is this: speak to any woman on the campus whom you meet regardless of the fact that you have never been introduced.

Three or Six---Which?

"I'm for them," said the casual bystander as three dusty figures clad in new "knicker" suits, passed him on the road. The women, Helen Smekal '24, Thelma Marion '24, and Clair Meyer '24, were hiking to Savoy under the auspices of the W. A. A. and had adopted the "knickers" as the most comfortable and appropriate costume for the occasion.

WALTER HAGEN WINS PROFESSIONAL GOLF TITLE FROM BARNES

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Walter Hagen, New York, won the professional golfers' championship today defeating Jim Barnes, national open champion, 3 and 2.

Starting the afternoon session with a margin of one up, Hagen quickly obtained a commanding lead by winning the first two holes. At the turn he stood four up having gone out in 33, four strokes under par. Barnes went out in 37. It was not until they reached the 14th that Barnes won a hole on the afternoon round. At that point Hagen hooked his drive to a trap and had to play out short.

Throughout the day Barnes was unable to get down any kind of a putt over four feet, whereas Hagen was running the ball in from all sorts of distances.

This is the first case on record of a homebred player winning the title. Hagen's cash award was $500, Barnes $250.

ATTACK LABOR UNIONS DURING SENATE DEBATE

Senator Nelson Blames Workmen's Wages For Building Slump

INCOME TAX BILL CHANGE ACCEPTED

Demand Showdown Concerning Threats Made of Transportation Tolls

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—An attack on union labor by Senator Nelson, Republican from Minnesota, and a successful fight against a committee amendment which it was claimed would discriminate against American ships in favor of foreign craft marked the senator's consideration today of the Republican tax revision bill.

Senator Nelson declared that the workmen themselves were responsible for most of the unemployment over the country because they would not consent to a readjustment of wages, and to the railroad workers he attributed part of the responsibility for the present high freight rates asserting that until there was a reduction in the high wages and bonuses allowed during government control, the people could not hope to get cheaper transportation tariff.

Demands Showdown
Referring to the threatened strike of railroad workers, the Minnesota senator said he was getting tired of threats to tie up transportation systems and that there should be a showdown.

He also declared that the slackness in the building industry was due almost entirely to the high wages paid to the workmen. If bricklayers, carpenters and other house building mechanics get down their salaries from $10 to $12 a day to $8 or $9 a day there would be the greatest boom in the building industry ever seen in this country, according to the senator.

The Senate Accepted
The senate accepted a committee amendment under which the head of a family would make a single return for himself and wife irrespective of the laws in states under which the wife actually owns half of the joint property of the marital community.

WAR EXPERIENCES OF NURSE RELATED

Federal Board Student Here Describes Work in Base Hospital 8

"If we ever should have war again I want to retain my right as a Red Cross nurse in reserve, so that I may be allowed to further serve," said Miss Lucy Walters, a Federal Board student in the University who served 19 months in the world war, 10 of which were spent in France.

While there she was stationed at Base Hospital No. 8, Savenay, France, until relieved from active service in May 1919. Prior to that and shortly after the outbreak of the war Miss Walters was sent to Camp Lewis, where she remained until May 1918.

Breaks Leg
It was while on duty at Base Hospital No. 8 that Miss Walters sustained an injury to her leg, caused by a fall down stairs. This injury has since necessitated two operations. It is for this reason and the fact that she has valvular heart trouble that she wishes to give up nursing and go into the nursery business later on.

Like all nurses who have seen service abroad, Miss Walters was reticent in telling of her work there. She said that Base Hospital No. 8 was the largest one in France at one time having a capacity of 15,000.

Bombed by Planes
Base Hospital No. 8 was too far from the battlefields to have experienced a German air attack. When Miss Walters came from Havre to Paris, a German air ship flew over them and dropped bombs. They were all ordered to cellars. The tracks over which they came were destroyed but no one was injured.

Prior to the war Miss Walters lived in Glasgow, Montana, where she home-stayed a claim. She is registered in the College of Agriculture and expects to finish the four year course.

RETURN TO NORMAL BUSINESS POSSIBLE

—BOGART

Lowest Ebb Reached Early This Fall Is Indication of Reports

"If business conditions are not further disturbed by railroad strikes, there should be improvement from now on," said Prof. E. L. Bogart, head of the department of economics, yesterday.

"Reports from the national conference on unemployment at Washington are not as bad as previously indicated in the report published by the department of labor."

Lowest Ebb Passed
The reports from banks and industrial concerns indicate that the lowest ebb in business was reached during the summer. In the early fall a distinct upward turn in business began to take place and is still continuing.

The national conference on unemployment which met at Washington recently suggested constructive measures to meet the situation. Special committees were appointed to work out different phases of the subject. The conference adjourned until October 10 when it will consider a permanent unemployment policy and suggestions to return business and commerce conditions to normal.

Phi Epsilon announces the pledging of Irma Vanderbeck '24, Rockford, and Alice Fisher '25, Forest Park.

Indiana and Iowa Victors, Purdue Defeated 9-0 by Wabash In Surprise Game

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Chicago University opened its Western Conference football season with an easy 41 to 0 victory over Northwestern University today before a crowd of approximately 25,000 persons.

Coach Stagg loosened the draw strings on his bag of football tricks but little, bringing forth only a series of short-end runs and off-side plays which combined with short forward passes proved ample to overcome Chicago's traditional rivals.

Pyott, a comparatively newcomer in Maroon football circles, was the individual star of the day with several 20 yard runs and one of 45 yards.

Harvard 3; Holy Cross 0. CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 1.—Thirty thousand persons today saw Charlie Buell, Harvard's quarterback, hit a 39 yard drop kick over the Holy Cross goal post for the only points that were scored in a hard fought game.

Indiana Downs Kalamazoo. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 1.—Using only straight football Indiana University today 29 to 0 Kalamazoo tried the forward pass several times but without success. Hayden's safety for Kalamazoo in the last quarter scored two points for Indiana.

Purdue Loses 9-0. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 1.—Taking advantage of fumbles Wabash defeated Purdue at football today 9 to 0. Quarterback Goldsberry of Wabash scored a touchdown in the first period after his team gained the ball on Purdue's 20 yard line.

Iowa Defeats Knox. IOWA CITY, Iowa, Oct. 1.—The University of Iowa swept over Knox by a 52 to 14 victory here today. The visitors' defense was shattered by the Hawkeyes' line and the backs romped off big gains at will.

Gophers 19; North Dakota 0. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 1.—Frequent fumbling and brilliant work on the part of Arnold Oss marked Minnesota's 19 to 0 victory over North Dakota today. It was the first test of the 1921 Gopher machine and in addition to Oss promise was shown by Martineau, Gilstead and McCreary in the backfield.

Ohio 28; Wesleyan 0. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan 28 to 0 in the first football game of the season here today. After a last minute shakedown including the shifting of Captain Myers, end, to fullback and Huffman, tackle, and Trot, guard, to ends, the Buckeyes put up a rather ragged exhibition but were able to score a touchdown in each period.

Wisconsin 28; Lawrence 0. MADISON, Wisconsin, Oct. 1.—Wisconsin opened its football season today with a 28 to 0 victory over Lawrence College in a game marked by brilliant Badger backfield work.

Elliott at left for Wisconsin was the star, running through the Lawrence players for two touchdowns and numerous end gains.

Michigan 44; Mt. Union 0. ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 1.—Carrying a smashing attack Michigan today outplayed Mount Union football eleven and won the first game of the season 44 to 0. Yost's squad worked as a unit, the front wall opening great gaps in the visitors' defense.

CHAMPAIGN HIGH ELEVEN WINS FROM ARCOLA 60-0

Champaign high school rooters left McKinley field jubilant yesterday after the Maroons had snowed under the Arcola eleven 60-0. The Maroon and White had been primed by Coach John Van Liew for a stiff game as Arcola was reputed to be unusually strong.

After the regulars had established a comfortable lead, the scrubs were injected into the fray and they continued the snowball process. Champaign has not been defeated for five successive years and prospects for a sixth unbeaten year are good.

TEAM MAKES POOR SHOWING IN GAME

Trouncing of 30 to 0 for Freshman Varsity Shows Squad's Weak Spots

"The poorest game a team of mine has played at this stage of practice, in the last eight years," was the way Bob Zuppke characterized the Varsity's 30 to 0 defeat of the Freshman Varsity team on Illinois field yesterday afternoon.

The game was not without its redeeming features but the Varsity fumbled the ball on the first play, were continually penalized for off-sides and showed little if any team play.

Three Touchdowns. The score was collected through three touchdowns and an equal number of field goals. Mohr, Crangle and Muellen scored the touchdowns while Anderson and Sabo were responsible for the place kicks.

Very few forward passes were attempted by the Varsity and of these only one was completed. The freshmen got away with several long heaves but were unable to cross the line. Play was in the yearlings territory most of the time as the Varsity outweighed the freshmen heavily.

Lineup Shifted. Mohr looked fair at half back considering the fact that he has had only two nights in which to acustom himself to the position and Muellen, a sophomore who has played in the line to date was tried in the backfield. The line-up of both teams was shifted continually.

Anderson's kicking and flashes of good defensive work in the line were some of the redeeming features of the game. The lack of unified play was the most notable weakness of the Varsity. This and eligibility are the two factors that will make the South Dakota game uncertain. Zuppke has material for a strong team but some of his best men are subject to minor bruises that keep them off the field frequently while others are ineligible. If he can get the right eleven men, free from injuries and scholastic difficulties, the team should make a much better showing in the South Dakota game next Saturday.

THIRTY-FIVE WOMEN TAKE W. A. A. FRESHMAN HIKE

Thirty-five freshmen women attended the Woman's Athletic association hike to Crystal lake at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After the women reached Crystal lake they sang songs and roasted marshmallows.

VARSITY BASKET BALL CANDIDATES WILL BE DIVIDED INTO CLASSES AND ASSIGNED DRILL PERIODS TOMORROW ACCORDING TO COACH WINTERS. ALL WHO INTEND TO TRY FOR THE TEAM AND WHO ARE NOT ON THE FOOTBALL SQUAD SHOULD REPORT AT THIS TIME TO RECEIVE THEIR ASSIGNMENT.

URBANA HIGH DEFEATED IN FIRST GRID BATTLE

Urbana high school lost its opening game of the season to Georgetown yesterday afternoon by a score of 7-0. The first half passed with out any scoring, but Georgetown took the ball at the resumption of play and by straight football took it over the line and kicked a goal.

Urbana's green team showed promise of developing into a troublemaker in a few weeks. Outside of momentary weakness in the third period when their opponents scored, the line held well throughout the game, while the backfield looked good at times.

Guests, or Patrons?

In planning Homecoming entertainment two ideals may be kept in view. The University of Illinois may look upon its returning alumni as guests to be offered every hospitality, or as patrons who are to be given an opportunity to spend their money in the Twin Cities.

The latter view seems to have been more in vogue during the past few years. Illinois Union in preparing to receive the old-timers has considered not entirely "How will they enjoy this feature?" but "Will they spend their money liberally to see it?"

In the alumni Stadium campaign, which will be in full swing during Homecoming, the alumni will be asked to make a material contribution in money as a measure of their devotion to their alma mater. These pledges of faith, though they will be made willingly and cheerfully, will mean a sacrifice on the part of many.

Does it not fall as a duty upon the students of Illinois to make some sacrifice in order that the entire burden of expense of Homecoming entertainment shall not fall upon the visitors? The undergraduates should on this one occasion of all the year play the host with generous hospitality. A well-received alumni will not be content to return for one reunion in five, ten or fifteen years.

Illinois Union in drawing up the program for the Stadium Homecoming should include free entertainment where all will be welcome on a greater scale than has been attempted. Student talent, an inexhaustible source of enjoyment for ex-college men and women, should be drawn upon without restraint. Students should not grudge a little time and energy from all their University year to assure pleasure for those who can be on the campus perhaps only one day.

Let us look upon Homecoming as a weekend wherein we are to give ourselves to the great host of Illini, just as loyal and just as appreciative of Illinians as we, that has gone before us. Let us make the Old Grads feel like guests, not like patrons.

Charles Byron Hatch

With the death of Charles Byron Hatch, Champaign business man, yesterday morning, the University loses one of its most ardent helpers. The whole community, and scores of graduates will remember Mr. Hatch as one of the founders of the annual football banquet to the members of the Illini squad.

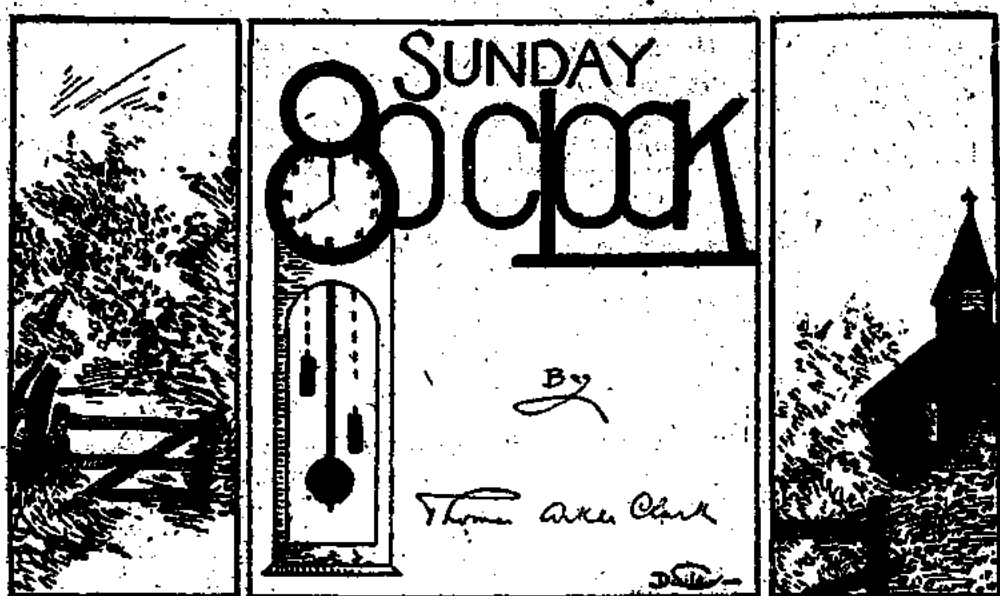

But the football banquet was only a small part of the interest Mr. Hatch maintained in Illinois. He was a never-failing enthusiast at Orange and Blue football games. To the last of his illness from heart-trouble he was eager to learn about the welfare of the University and to do his best to aid it.

Mr. Hatch was a self-made man. Coming to Illinois at the age of nine, he never had the opportunities for even high school education. That he should adopt as his protege a University is all the more remarkable because of his own few educational advantages.

Illinois is grateful for its memory of Mr. Hatch.

Standing on Principle

It's a test of character for a young fellow just entering college to stand by his principles, especially if they are of that old-fashioned kind that have respect for self-control and religion.

It takes nerve to say your prayers in the dormitory while some unregenerate slimmer giggles, or to start off for church or Sunday school when the other fellows are either in bed or sitting round in their pajamas reading the Sunday paper. It isn't easy always to admit that you don't smoke or to refuse approval when a smart sophomore cracks a vulgar joke, but, as I said, it's a test of character and a test which too many flunk.

Every one admires the man who stands by his principles even when he is loath to admit it. If he laughs or makes light of your respect for religion or your regard for a clean tongue and a clean life, it is merely to bolster his own weakness or to test your sincerity. He respects you if you stand, and despises your weakness if you lack the courage of your convictions.

When Jimmy Hunter "got religion" during one of the evangelistic campaigns conducted at the University, years ago, he knew perfectly well that he'd have to say his prayers openly. When he thought of what "Butch" Wheeler, big, blasphemous and agnostic, would say and do, his heart sank, but he stood by his principles and knelt down by the bed in the dormitory, his body trembling and his lips dumb. Somebody laughed. But it was "Butch" who thundered out,

"Be quiet. Jimmy's doing what he thinks is right, and what some of us, perhaps, would be better off if we did. If any man interferes he'll wish he hadn't." And quiet reigned.

If there were fifty men or women with force and with moral and religious backbone, they could revolutionize almost any community—even this one in fact. It isn't necessary to talk or to preach much. All that is needed is to go ahead and lead your own life quietly, cleanly, conservatively, without shame and in accordance with the principles which you know are right. It's example that counts most.

for the drive among Freshmen on the campus this fall.

Both students are persons of pre-eminent leadership who have given a great share of their time toward improving student activities and interests at Illinois.

With such captains in command, the Stadium plus campaign can not be otherwise than successful.

The Central Passenger association has resumed its prewar custom of lowering railroad rates for football excursions. Purdue rooters will be allowed to go up to the Chicago-Purdue game at half-fare. That reminds us that it is about time to start working to get a special through to Columbus this year.

The first snipe-hunting party of the season was staged last Thursday night, according to late reports. But the freshman sack-holder caught all the game and beat the brushers back to town!

"I see that Red Armstrong has been appointed St. Louis manager of the Stadium drive," the Linosaur observed yesterday morning. "Who remembers when Red and Charlie Tapscott were the standbys of the office?"

Upperclassmen in the courses in journalism have adopted blue-work shirts and black ties for daily wear. A sensible movement, providing class distinction without useless cost. Bring on the cordaroys, Elmer.

"The only University course offered to women in diplomacy and business efficiency is that in rushing," writes the Daily Iowan. What about the double entry system of dating?

They say that knickers are beginning to enter the campus fashion show. Well, let them, we can stand anything once.

So, the senators will be limited to one hour debates? "Well never mind, old man, you can have it printed in the congressional record."

Fifty-four students have earned preliminary honors. By the way, what are the rushing rules of Phi Beta? No we aren't either.

Others' Opinions

Unfortunate Emphasis

Editor, Illini:—The article entitled "England and China," written by one of our Chinese friends, pointing out the absurdity of the idea of a conspiracy between America and China" at the coming Disarmament Conference invites me to make a few explanatory remarks concerning the original article of the 22nd inst., in which this unhappy phrase appeared.

That article concerned with the current opinions in Japan in regard to the Washington Conference, and in order to be fair and accurate the pessimistic as well as optimistic views were pointed out. It is regrettable indeed that the pessimistic view alone seemed to have received undue attention, for it is by no means either representative or influential while the optimistic view, that much good may come out of the Conference, is held by the majority of the intelligent public in Japan.

Let me take this opportunity to express my conviction that only the frank representation of facts and arguments and sympathetic attitude toward the problems could lead us to thorough understandings in any tangled affairs, personal, national or international.

Contemporaries

Too Much Society

In the edition of the Des Moines Register for September 26, appeared an article which denounces the enormous extravagances of college students of Iowa written by a citizen of the state.

The writer calls attention to the fact that the unreasonable expense incurred by college students is due to the increased cost of necessities but to the increased cost of the extravagant social life which prevails in Iowa colleges. He is convinced that the whole, some friendly type of social life has been displaced by a fast social life. And the worst thing about the extravagance of college life, he contends, is the disastrous results of too much high life. He believes that snobbishness and immorality have grown out of it. Young college men and women are coming to regard themselves above the common folk and feel that they are a part of a special privileged class composed of those who attend college.

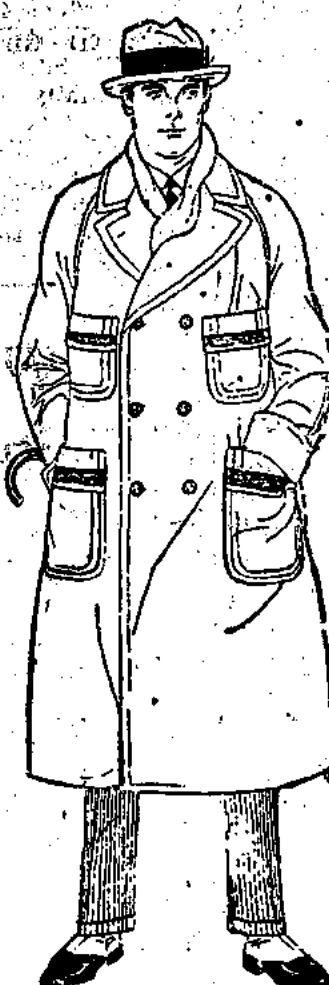

Whether such a challenge to the democracy of college life in Iowa is justifiable or not, it makes us stop and think. There is one thing certain that such criticism does not apply to all college students of Iowa generally, but only to a few.

On the other hand, the writer overlooks the increasing number of students who are helping to defray increased expense, and neglects entirely to evaluate the importance of college social activities as vital influences. He forgets that sociability is just as important a factor in the little campus world as it is outside.

In contrast to the writer's misconception of college life here in Iowa, we have the idea which a mother expressed the other day when she bade her son farewell as he departed for college. The remark was to the effect that there were many things connected with college about which she did not know or care, but she did want the fellows to like her son. She hoped that her son might learn something outside of books, she hoped that he would be companionable.

Social life may tend to the extreme, we have to admit, but a certain amount is necessary for a well-balanced life, especially where five or six thousand college students are gathered together.—Daily Iowan.

Stratford Clothes
The Glenrock

Soft wooly fabrics and the "Namsirr" method

SOFT, wooly weaves make beautiful overcoats—but when tailored in the ordinary way for heavy coats, they wear threadbare at sleeves and pockets, no matter how high their quality.

Stratford has eliminated this by the "Namsirr" method—stitching the cuffs and continental patch pockets with very fine silk. Each row of silk becomes an integral part of the fabric itself and so strengthens it that no matter the usage, it is almost impossible for the cloth to wear threadbare.

The "Namsirr" method of totally stitching cuffs and pockets greatly enhances the smartness and beauty of the garment.

Zom unhesitatingly recommends these overcoats. The soft weaves are tailored beautifully in these big, rompy, luxurious coats.

Forehanded University men are thinking about overcoats these days.

ESSAY IN TOLERANCE

There's a moth-eaten tale how a pot in high fettle,
Made nasty remarks to his neighbor, the Kettle.
It puts me in mind of the way that this campus
Maligns all the grilles who amiably vamp us.
The youth who cries shame on the girl with bobbed hair
Is likely to have his own locks razored square;
A lad with a moustache like two dabs of paint
Will laugh at a spit-curl until he is faint.
The truth of the matter is that we are all
Weak minded together; divided we fall;
As Weirlock once said: "Those who dwell in tin basements
Should not throw can-openers out of the casements."

Would it be correct to characterize female employees in Field's Basement as "Cellar Sisters?"
And wasn't yesterday's wheeze about oilcans the cattiest ever?

Try again, Sid. Didn't quite get that Alpha Chi anecdote you handed us. Be specific.

Dear Scout:
I knew a professor who told his students in math that to get rid of a certain expression they must multiply by long division. I stand to be corrected, but is not that a wee bit to the Einstein? Or the Ec. I, in which A equals E? Name on application. Stamps enclosed.

Mary.

Dear Scout:
Please add Household Hints. The Man from Aulds was at the D. G. edifice erstwhile. A sister asked, pointing to a nifty little nickel plated hootch flask, "How much perfume will that hold?" The M. from A. responded, "About two drinks, madame."
The classy container now stands before the sister's mirror, brim full of Azurea.
"And to think I told the freshmen they mustn't buy it!" wailed the independent sister's roommate.

THE FRIVOLOUS FLAPPER says she thinks that in many ways the University library is very incomplete because she hunted for hours in the section containing Greek literature and couldn't find a single volume of Ibsen's works.

GEORGE SCHULER, DIXON

This was quite an honor, that of being chosen to assist in the forming of a new chapter of Chi Phi fraternity, at which time forty young men were initiated.

"Is it any wonder," mused the philosopher, "that registrars die young? They do not mind talking to five or six thousand clamorous students at once, or being detained from their lunch by some troubled registrant; but when a freshman stalks boldly in with a prescription calling for a bottle of castor oil, and asks to have it filled, as one did yesterday afternoon"

On with the Dance

by
Miss McCormick

Please understand that I am not a strict adherer to the Epicurean doctrine, although I do misconstrue the subtle old time phrase to read: "Life, at a University, is just one dance after another."

You can't afford to miss

—in October's Victrola records, a fox trot, "Ho" by Johnny Black and played by the All Star Trio. Johnny, you will remember, was the author—or whatever you call him—composer, I guess of "Dardenella." "Ho" is blessed with the same rhythmic base, and the same thrills and thrills. "Mimi", played by the same Trio, is on the other side of this record.

EUBIE BLAKE and his Shuffle Along

Eubie Blake's orchestra is a new addition to the host of other jazz orchestras now playing for the Victrola. They are a group of colored artists from the big show "Shuffle Along" their first record is "Bandana Days" which introduces, "I'm just wild about Harry". On the other side of this record is a fox trot "Baltimore Blues" introducing "In Honeysuckle Time". This record promises to be one of the big hits.

YES INDEEDIE!

Paul Whiteman's orchestra has eased out of the Palais Royale long enough during their 40 weeks engagement there to make another record which is said to beat "Che Che Sam" all hollow. It is "Sweetheart" On the opposite sides "In A Boat" Both fox trots? You bet!

"SALLY" Won't You Come Back?

For the lovers of "Sally", Shilking's orchestra plays a medley fox trot, "Bring Back My Blushing Rose" which introduces "Sally Won't you Come Back" (and on the Q.T. don't you wish he would!) All of these are 10 inch records and 85c each.

TWIN CITIES LEAD IN BUILDING BOOM

Construction Prices 10 Per Cent. Lower Than In Chicago

"More buildings are being erected in the Twin Cities than in any town in Illinois of the same size," said W. L. Brooks, general manager of the L. B. King contracting company, when approached on the question of building conditions here.

"Construction prices in Champaign and Urbana are ten percent lower than in Chicago," he continued. "Building plays are being made now to alleviate the amazing shortage of houses here."

According to opinions of real estate men in the Twin Cities, the only way Champaign can spread is towards the south, the direction in which Urbana is growing. In the district along the Armory will be erected the Chi Psi and Alpha Chi Rho houses, each of which will cost approximately $60,000. The trend of the new fraternity row seems to be in that direction.

E. WARWICK VICTOR IN 20-MILE RACES ON URBANA TRACK

Paul Cloyd in Ford, Shaken Up In Turnover During Twenty-Third Lap

FRONTENAC FORD OUT

Final Race Is Duel Between Warwick and Noonan, With Omsby in Trouble

In a race free from any serious accidents, Earl Warwick of Covington, Ind., driving a Chevrolet, won the 20 mile final race for a $30 purse with the time of 32 minutes, 31.35 seconds, yesterday afternoon at the Urbana Fair Ground dirt track. The highly touted Frontenac Ford car, owned by Arthur Chevrolet of Indianapolis and driven by Ralph Amsby, failed to finish, dropping out in the 13th lap with a broken piston head. Second place went to J. Noonan of Paris, Ill., pilot of an Overland.

Cloyd Turns Over
One accident occurred, however, when Paul Cloyd of Clinton, Ind., driving a Ford Special, was thrown from his car and badly shaken up when his Ford turned over on the east turn. Cloyd was in his 23rd lap at the time and running in fourth place. Hard luck also struck Belt, driver of Doc. Robert's Buick Special, when his goggles broke in the third semi-final heat and lodged some glass in his eye. Belt was allowed to enter the final race, however, and won third money.

The final race proved to be a duel between Warwick and Noonan after Omsby dropped out. The latter started out with a big lead as he had the pole, but when his engine began missing, he soon dropped back. From then on, Warwick had the lead and never was headed. Baker, driving a Nash, was also forced out early in the race, as he cut in ahead of Cloyd while rounding the east turn. He was flagged and forced out of the race by the officials.

Prior to assuming the new office, I served in the commission on railroad location in China. I stayed in Peking most of the time then, but now I have my office in the Governor's house at Kwang Tung, Canton."

COLLIDING AUTO DRIVERS WRANGLE OVER BLAME

Automobiles driven by E. J. Hutchinson and Fred Younts, both of Champaign, collided yesterday morning at Race and Oregon streets. Hutchinson was coming from the north and Younts from the west when the accident occurred. A heated argument took place after the collision between the two drivers as to who was to blame. Both of the cars were damaged slightly but the men escaped without injury.

BARBARY BUSH CAMPAIGN SUSPENDED FOR PRESENT

Field work of the campaign to rid the northern counties of the state of the common barbery bush has been suspended for the present, and the men have returned to school. Under the leadership of L. R. Tehon of the Natural History survey, an army of school boys crossed through McHenry, Lake, Cook, DuPage and Kane counties last summer, removing over 100,000 of the bushes. The barbaries were removed from 8,340 farms in these counties.

DETERMINE PROPER CREAM LINE HEAT

Professor Harding Compiles Figures to Find Best Temperature for Pasteurization

Working on the principle that the application of heat to milk destroys the cream line, Prof. H. A. Harding has been trying to determine the degree of heat to which milk may be heated in order to produce pasteurization and yet retain the cream line. This information will be invaluable commercially because the problem of creating a uniform heating point in all dairies will probably be decided by the meeting of the International Milk Dealers association as a result of Professor Harding's research work.

Has Compiled Data
The experimentation has involved the visiting of all the principal dairies and milk pasteurization companies in the country. As a result of figures obtained from the large pasteurization companies, Professor Harding has compiled a chart showing the exact amount of the cream line destroyed by each additional degree of temperature applied to milk.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ADOPTS DOUBLE PLATOON SYSTEM

In compliance with a recent act of the General Assembly, the Champaign Fire Department will adopt the two platoon system on Monday morning. According to the act of the legislature, the system must go into effect before Jan. 1, 1932, but the Champaign department is adopting it now so that the new men may become used to the work before winter, when the department is busiest. The new system will require an addition of three men to the present force of eleven so that there may be two shifts of seven men each. The shifts will be on duty from eight o'clock one morning until eight the next, and there will be no meal hours or days off.

Man to Man

SPEAKING of the way we do business:

It's a man's business all the way through; from the time one of the clerks shows you a new idea in cuff links, until the time another man understands your idea of a suit that's becoming.

And it's "Man to man" when something goes wrong. No big store stuff for ours. We do it friendly-like and quickly.

BLEND CORN TO GET BARS PURPLE, BLUE AND PINK

An interesting type of rainbow corn, the result of cross fertilizing, has been blended to form a combination of white, yellow, pink, purple and blue kernels. The ear is of the same size as any regular ear of corn, but the kernels seem to be almost as large as those of the ordinary size.

Dr. T. H. Hesse, of the department of botany, has a specimen ear of this corn in his office, and calls it "squal corn."
